

SECOND SECTION

OGDEN CITY, UTAH SUNDAY MORNING, AUGUST 15, 1920.

HERE AND THERE IN THE WHIRL OF SOCIETY

Eugene Barnes
And Bride Are
Party GuestsDancing Party and Shower Is Given by Parents at Monroe Avenue Home

Complimenting their son, Eugene Barnes and his bride, formerly Miss Alta Bilton, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Barnes of Salt Lake, were at a dancing party and shower Friday evening at their home, 2651 Monroe avenue. The young couple were married on July 2 at Farmington, their marriage coming as a pleasant surprise to their many friends. The guests gathered during the early evening and the time was spent in dancing.

The Barnes home was tastefully decorated with summer flowers. A glass basket, filled with pink and white sweetpeas with the handle tied with pink malinge formed the attractive centerpiece for the table. Crimson gladioli combined with a touch of baby breath adorned other parts of the room. Small bowls of red marigolds also found place in the decorations. Dancing was enjoyed on the lawn, where profusions of summer marigolds held sway with sweet william and other summer flowers. Creating much enjoyment among the guests, was the opening of the numerous gifts presented during the evening. Following that, dancing was resumed on the lawn. Punch and wafers were served from a flowered booth. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Barnes, Paul White, Ray West, Joseph E. Barry, Kammeyer, Charles T. Duffins, Caleb Shreeve, A. A. Francis, Wendell F. Ogden, Heber C. Gibson, T. P. Emmett, H. L. Passy, Frank J. Moore, Leon Erickson, Ruth Erickson of Salt Lake, Mr. Woodbury of Salt Lake, By White of Salt Lake, Claude Lambert of Salt Lake, Gwen Caine of Salt Lake, Leah Stager, Ada Hauck, Thera Cordon, Ida Parker, Florence Purdy, Louise Purdy, Helen Purdy, Fawn Carver, Florence Bilton, Nellie G. West, Edna Bilton, Leone Wright, Mrs. W. F. Ogden, Melba Ogden, Leone Francis, Vera McElride, Carl Christie, Miss Alta Barnes, Mrs. Mary Heller, Mrs. Emma Shreeve, Miss Mary Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. N. K. Moyes and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Barnes, host and hostess.

Officers and directors of the Altair art society met Sunday afternoon at the University club rooms. At the suggestion of H. W. Arbury and Harry Morrison, two Community Service workers, the Altair society will cooperate with other Ogden clubs and present a fall pageant. The pageant will not be given solely by the members of the Altair society, but members of other societies will be asked to aid in the presentation. Definite plans have not been decided yet, but in all probability will be taken up at meetings in the near future.

Dr. Edward I. Rich and family have returned from a week's outing spent at Bear Lake.

Kenneth Moore, son of L. T. Moore of Twin Falls is visiting in Ogden for two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Royal Gudmundson.

Miss Helen Cortez left during the early part of the week for Berkeley, Cal., to resume her studies for the winter. Before returning to school Miss Cortez will visit with her sister, Mrs. Walter E. Cooper of Los Angeles. Miss Cortez was accompanied by her sister Mildred.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Rasmussen of Los Angeles were guests for the past week at the home of Mr. Rasmussen's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rasmussen. They left Monday for Canada, where Mr. Rasmussen will take a position.

Daughters of the Mormon Battalion enjoyed an outing at Lagoon Thursday afternoon. Lunches were taken by the members and after an afternoon of delightful entertainment, supper was served.

Miss Helen Stauffer and Miss Delecta Moeuch who spent their vacation in Salt Lake, have returned to Ogden after several pleasant days in the capital city.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Meidinger of 2136 Reeves avenue, have had as their guests for the past two weeks Mr. and Mrs. G. Gentil and their sons, Carl and Kenneth. Mr. and Mrs. Gentil visited during the early summer in San Francisco and while en route to their home in St. Louis, stopped in Ogden for two weeks. Louis were taken up Ogden canyon and to other points of interest. They left Monday for St. Louis accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. H. Hable of Ogden. Mrs. Dahle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Meidinger.

Miss Sila Taylor and Miss Belle Cawley have returned to Ogden after spending two pleasant weeks at Bear Lake.

Mrs. N. Knudsen, Miss Myrtle and Miss Thea Knudsen, Mrs. M. H. Van Dyke and daughter, Lucille, have returned from a delightful trip through Yellowstone park.

Miss Martha Hadfield of Salt Lake and Miss Mina Jarman have returned from an extended motor trip through Idaho and Oregon. They were accompanied by their uncle, Arthur Jarman. Miss Hadfield will spend a few days in Ogden before returning to her home in Salt Lake.

Miss Gertrude Johnson of Idaho Falls, Ida, is visiting in Ogden with friends. Miss Johnson is a graduate of Sacred Heart academy. During her stay in Utah she will also visit in Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Moyes of Salt Lake, who have been the guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Paddock for a few days at their home in the canyon, left during the early part of the week for Idaho.

Ogden has had many guests during the past weeks, visitors from far and near. Those in the pictures are, top, Mrs. Victor N. Sears, of Salt Lake, who has been a guest of Mrs. Joseph E. Evans. Mrs. Sears was the complimented at a prettily appointed lawn party Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Evans. Lower left are Miss Mary Barnett and Miss Gwen McKnowles of Richmond, Utah, who are the guests of Miss Myra Wright. Both Miss Barnett and Miss McKnowles have been the guests of honor at some of the social events of the week. At the right is Miss Gertrude Johnston of Idaho Falls, Idaho, who also visited friends in Ogden and Salt Lake during the past week. Miss Johnston formerly attended school at the Sacred Heart academy. She returned to her home last Thursday morning.

Mrs. John Helmen and daughters, Marcella and Mary Frances left Sunday morning for a month's visit at Oakland and Los Angeles. They were accompanied by Mrs. Isabella Seaton, who has been spending the summer with relatives in Ogden. Mrs. Seaton is returning to her home.

Monday at 1 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Taylor, 2414 A avenue, the wedding of Miss Nellie Eva Tippler and Wesley H. Branstetter took place. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. John Edward Carver. The bride was attended by Miss Tressa Brown.

Miss Helen Gridley of East Arbutus, Cal., is a guest at the home of Miss Eleanor Clark of Salt Lake. Miss Clark and Miss Gridley were guests at the Ogden canyon Hermitage hotel for several days. They have returned to Salt Lake.

Mrs. W. H. Eccles, Mrs. Walker Cheesman and little daughter Anne, of Ogden were Salt Lake guests Monday at the home of Mrs. George K. Smith. Mrs. Eccles left with Mrs. H. Cheesman of Salt Lake for a trip through Yellowstone park. They expect to be gone about ten days.

Mrs. E. Smith of Burley, Idaho, was a guest Sunday and Monday at the home of Miss Gertrude Storey.

Mrs. J. W. Paddock and little daughter, Margaret, left Tuesday for Salt Lake, to stay the remainder of the week as guests of Mrs. Paddock's sister, Mrs. A. W. Long.

Miss Verna Riley and Miss Ellen Oakden have returned from a week's trip through Yellowstone.

Miss Vinette Parry has returned from a few days' visit in Salt Lake.

Miss Doris Campbell and Jack Campbell, who have been the guests of Miss Ruth Boyd for the past six weeks left Monday for their home in South Bend, Ind. Miss Campbell was a classmate of Miss Boyd at the Donover school for girls in Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Boyd and daughters, Ruth and Helen, and Miss Doris Campbell and Jack Campbell of South Bend, Ind., have returned from a motor trip through Yellowstone park.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Parks, and their two children, Jessie and Grace, accompanied by Mrs. W. T. Astill, motored to Salt Lake Wednesday morning. They returned to Ogden during the early evening, stopping at Lagoon, where supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Browning and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wallace have returned from a ten-day trip through Yellowstone park, and Jackson Hole county. While en route to the park they stopped several days with friends in Teton in the Teton Basin.

Miss Lizette Magnin was hostess to the members of the S. O. H. club Monday evening at her home, 2971 Washington avenue. At the business meeting the following officers were elected: Miss Thomas Garner, president; Miss Ruth Junk, secretary, and Miss Mary Dunn, treasurer. The remainder of the evening was spent with music and games. Refreshments were served by the hostess. Miss Madeline Quillion will be hostess to the club on Monday, August 16.

Miss Doris Campbell and Jack Campbell, who have been the guests of Miss Ruth Boyd for the past six weeks left Monday for their home in South Bend, Ind. Miss Campbell was a classmate of Miss Boyd at the Donover school for girls in Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Skelly, accompanied by Mrs. Skelly's mother, Mrs. E. O. Fyles, have arrived in Ogden from Long Beach, Cal. They expect to visit for a month or two in Ogden and then will return to their home in the south. Mr. and Mrs. Skelly reported that they had felt many earthquake shocks during their visit on the coast.

Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Thiemister of Chicago have been the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Morrell for the past two days. They accompanied Dr. and Mrs. Morrell on a trip through Yellowstone park. Dr. and Mrs. Thiemister left for Chicago Friday morning. Dr. Thiemister is one of the leading surgeons of Chicago.

Miss Marguerite Rich is a guest at the home of Mrs. August Rich, on Twenty-fifth street. Miss Rich, accompanied by her mother, from their home in Nashville, Tenn. They will be Ogden guests for the coming two weeks.

Music and Drama

Students of the Weber Normal college of music gave another program last Thursday evening in the Weber Normal auditorium. With an attendance of about one hundred guests, the program was as follows:

Cello solo, "The Palma".....Faure
"Yearning".....Tschalkowsky
Dorothy Nichols.....Cadman
Piano solo, "In An Alabama Cabin"
Margaret Manning
Soprano solo, "The Message".....Coverly
Josephine Larkin
Violin solo, "Salut d'Armour".....Elgar
Joseph Holmes
Piano solo, "On the Meadow".....Lichner
Bernice Harding
Erlotte solo, "Till the Sands of the Desert Grow Cold".....Ball
Lynne Paul
Violin solo, "Remembrance".....Vost
Douglas Manning
Piano solo, "Paugette".....Beaumont
Mifford Piggott

The Primary association of the Fourteenth ward won the applause of everyone when they presented a vaudeville show in the ward hall Friday evening. The program which was well carried out by the little folks, was as follows:

Invocation—John Stevens.
One-act play, "My Mother's Aid Society" by six girls.
Song, "Wonderful Mother".....Ray Wilson, Ruth Saunders, Isabella Harbertson.
Reading, "Mother's Hairpin".....Eugene Holbrook.
Piano solo—Marie Greenwell.
"Hoboes".....Earl Stephens and Eric Wilson.
Song by four girls.
Reading, "My Grandfather is a Dutchman".....Wallace Stevens, 6 years of age; encore, "I Saw a Ship a-Sailing."
Old Ladies' Song, by Lucy White, Nellie DeGroot, Nora Garner and Olga Jensen.
Wrestling match—Jack Harbertson.

Bee-Hive Girls' Lawn Party is Pageant Proves
Colorful EventHundreds Witness Spectacle
Given on Lawns of Tabernacle Park

One of the prettiest pageants given in Ogden was that of Wednesday evening when the Bee-Hive girls of the Weber, North Weber and Ogden stakes presented, "The Day of the Swarm," at the tabernacle park. The pageant was given under the direction of the Young Ladies Mutual Improvement association, and was a succession of dance scenes and song numbers. Several hundred parents and friends were present.

With more than fifty prominent characters and featuring a chorus of more than two hundred voices, the pageant told the story of the Bee-Hive girls, their work and their aim, in many artistically arranged scenes and numbers. The nine spirits of girlhood were represented as follows: Faith, Josephine Shorten; Knowledge, Arvilla Parry; Health, Bernice Harris; Womanhood, Fannie Hilton; Beauty, Louise Fisher; Work, Gladys Peterson; Truth, Anna Taylor; Love, Grace Stone, and Joy, Ruth Stevens. Bees and flowers and symbols were represented by smaller children. Dancing was supervised by Miss Vera Tracy, assisted by Miss Myrtle Anderson.

The Bee-Hive Girls association is affiliated with the National Council of Women of the United States. Its work is supervised by the general board of the Y. L. M. I. A. The pageant was written especially for the Bee-Hive girls by Edna Wallace of the general board of Y. L. M. I. A. of Salt Lake.

Those who so successfully conducted the pageant were divided into the following committees: General director, Mrs. Amelia Figare, assisted by Miss Ida Shurtliff; cast committee, Olive Blackman, Anna Nelson and Edna Ballinger; costume committee, Myrtle Anderson, Bella Shipley and Annie L. May; publicity and finance committee, Flora Belnap, Amelia Figare and Edna Powell; properties, Golda Leiman, Edna Shupe and Ellen Agren; music and dance committee, Myrtle Anderson, Emily Maddock, Ruth Larkin and Vera Tracy.

Several requests have been received by Mrs. Figare to present the pageant for a second time.

Mrs. J. Thimmes and daughter, Irene, of Arkansas, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Thimmes. They will remain an indefinite time in Ogden.

Miss Leona Surley of Ogden will leave in the near future for San Francisco. She will be gone an indefinite time.

Miss Petty Thomas of Mahad, Ida, has returned to her home after spending the week-end with Mrs. Margaret Monro at their beautiful summer home in Ogden canyon.

Miss Margaret Munro left Monday for Boise, Idaho, to attend the banquet given by the Kappa Alpha society. Miss Munro will visit a couple of weeks before returning to Ogden.

Miss Lola Hales of Salt Lake was a weekend visitor at the home of Mrs. C. B. Brown. She returned to her home in Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Lane and baby of Salt Lake are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David W. Evans, 2248 Lincoln avenue.

Mrs. E. N. Benton of 1965 Jackson avenue was hostess at a delightful formal luncheon given recently in honor of Mrs. Walter Jansen of Lincoln, Calif., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. H. N. Bright, of 626 Twenty-seventh street. The house was beautifully decorated with ferns and golden glow. A color scheme of green and gold was also carried out in the dining room by the hostess. The luncheon was effectively centered with golden-glaze and ferns. At each place a small yellow basket was laid as a favor. The guests present were Mrs. W. Jansen, Mrs. H. N. Bright, Mrs. J. A. Gager, Mrs. Arthur Jensen, Mrs. Albert Ward, Mrs. J. E. Thomas and Mrs. H. J. Black.

Mrs. Walter Jansen of Lincoln, Calif., was the complimented guest at an attractively arranged luncheon given one day last week at the Bright residence, 626 Twenty-seventh street. Mrs. Jansen is a house guest at the home of her sister. Decorations of ferns and golden glow and other summer flowers were tastefully arranged in the home. The guests who gathered for the afternoon were Mrs. Walter Jansen, Mrs. W. B. Gorman, Mrs. J. A. Gager, Mrs. Arthur Jensen, Mrs. J. E. Thomas, Mrs. H. J. Black, Mrs. G. F. Prout and Mrs. E. N. Burton.

Service Star Legion members will hold their regular meeting Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. David Eccles, Jefferson and Twenty-sixth street. All members are urged to be present. Important business will be taken up at the meeting. Delegates will be selected to attend the national convention to be held at Des Moines, Ia., opening September 14.

Members of the Liberty club were entertained by Mrs. Jake Rhine and Mrs. E. K. Winar Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Rhine. Five Hundred was played during the afternoon with honors awarded to Mrs. John Crockett and Mrs. William Wilcox. Decorations were given by the hostess. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Complimenting Mrs. Ida Holland of Sacramento, Cal., members of Silver Review No. 1, Women's Benefit association of the Maccabees, gave a picnic luncheon Friday afternoon at Lorrin Farr park. Guests for the affair gathered on the park grounds at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Holland was a former resident of Ogden and is visiting here at the present time. While connected with the Ogden association, Mrs. Holland was captain of the guards.

Mrs. Jake Rhine of 2532 Fowler avenue was hostess to the members of the Liberty club, Ladies' Auxiliary to the Order of Railway Conductors, last Thursday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in social chat and in playing cards. Mrs. Winar assisted with the entertainment. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Victor N. Sears of Salt
Lake Complimented by
Mrs. Joseph E. Evans

Mrs. Joseph E. Evans entertained Friday evening at a lawn party at her home on Tyler avenue in compliment to Mrs. Victor N. Sears of Salt Lake. The lawn was artistically decorated and was lighted with dainty Japanese lanterns which cast a beautiful glow over the scene. The evening was passed with games and music. Twenty-five guests were present for the event.

Refreshments were served at small tables arranged at one end of the lawn. Mrs. Sears will remain in Ogden a portion of the coming week. Several other events in her honor are being planned.

Miss Alta Thurber of Richfield, Utah, has been visiting at the home of Miss Louise Chidester for the past week. During her visit in Ogden she has been the complimented guest at several pretty affairs. On Saturday evening, August 7, Miss Thurber was the honored guest at a party given at Salt Lake. The evening was spent in swimming and dancing, dinner was served in the ship cafe. On Monday evening, Miss Chidester entertained a luncheon, complimenting Miss Thurber. Dainty decorations of summer flowers were arranged around the rooms and on the table. Those present were Miss Thurber, Miss Chidester, Miss Florence Thomas, E. C. Wilcox of Denver, Walter E. Preston and Mrs. Chidester. Mr. Peterson favored with several piano selections. Miss Thurber was also the complimented guest at a swimming party Wednesday evening at Lagoon. An evening of swimming and dancing was enjoyed. Dinner was served in Canary Cottage. On Thursday evening Mrs. G. Vandervlies, Mrs. C. H. Jenkins, Miss Chidester, Miss Irene Hockness, Miss Florence Thomas entertained for Miss Thurber. Miss Thurber expects to remain in Ogden two weeks before returning to her home in Richfield.

Miss Margaret Davis, Miss Marguerite Hubbard, Rulon White, Merlin Cook and Lester Ward of Brigham were hosts and hostesses at a canyon party last Sunday afternoon. The party motored through Ogden canyon during the early part of the day, after selecting a cool spot, a delicious tray luncheon was served to the following guests: Lydia Holmgren, Ellen Zundel, Alice Eddy, Pauline Hubbard, Minnie Holmgren, Hilda Woodvatt, Leone White, Eva Eklund, Octavo Holmgren, Mable Anderson, Jewel Hubbard, Margaret Hubbard, Norman Olsen, Delmar Tingey, Lamont Glover, Charles Weiling, Vernon Rhodes, Alfred Olsen, Charles Hubbard, Karl Lee, Merlin Cook, Rulon White and Lester Ward of Brigham. Roy Boyce of Garland, and Powell Ipson of Salt Lake. The Hermitage resort furnished entertainment and amusement for the remainder of the afternoon. The party motored back to Brigham during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jansen of Lincoln, Cal., together with their son, Wilfred, have been spending the past two months in Ogden as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Bright. During their stay in the intermountain region, they, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Bright, motored to Yellowstone park where a very pleasant fortnight was spent. Upon their return to Ogden the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Gager, 2029 Monroe avenue, was the scene of a delightfully appointed luncheon given in honor of Mrs. Jansen. The color scheme of the house decorations was carried out in green and gold, a background of ferns and a profusion of golden glow. The luncheon consisted of ferns and pantries. The guests present were: Mrs. Walter Jansen, Mrs. H. N. Bright, Mrs. J. S. Daniels, Mrs. J. E. Thomas, Mrs. E. N. Benton, Mrs. Arthur Rice, Mrs. Arthur Jensen and Mrs. W. B. Gorman.

Miss Ethel Alway and Miss Genevieve McKenna of Salt Lake furnished choir concert given that evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Willoughby left the latter part of the week for Portland, Ore., to make their home. They have been spending the summer in Ogden canyon.

Miss Alma Oney and Miss Marjorie Mullen of Ogden were Salt Lake guests Sunday. While in the capital they attended the concert given by the Paulist choir.

Mrs. E. H. Harriman, wife of the late railroad organizer, was a visitor for a few hours Thursday when, in company with her son, Roland, and his family, a short visit was made in Ogden. They are en route to San Francisco.

Miss Ellen Oakden, who has been spending several weeks in the northwest, has returned to Ogden.

Miss Nina and Miss Dorothy Koepke have returned to their home in Ogden after spending their summer vacation with relatives in southern California. During their stay they visited at Long Beach, Ocean Park, Venice, Santa Monica, Pasadena, Los Angeles, Redondo, and Hummer Beach. They also spent a short time at San Pedro and other places of interest.

Entertaining in compliment to the mothers and children of the Women's Auxiliary, Silver Review No. 1, a delightful basket luncheon was held at Lorrin Farr park, Wednesday evening. The guests gathered during the early afternoon. Games were provided for the entertainment of the children. The older guests participated in quiet social activities. At 6:30 o'clock, baskets were opened and a delicious lunch was served to all the guests present. The party returned during the early evening.

Miss Dorothy Hyslop has returned from a two weeks' visit with relatives in Salt Lake.